What Our Customers Are Saying...

"We have moved again and we are having Elizabeth Shutters installed in our new home. We had them in our previous home, as well. My husband and I could not imagine having any other type of window covering or purchasing them from any other company. We love our Elizabeth Shutters!"

— Mrs. Stubbins, Menifee

I was impressed when the product came in my door. But, the installed shutters seriously exceeded my expectations. Your salesman was excellent and a pleasure to work with. Your installers did their job professionally, quickly and cleanly.

— Robert Davis, Irvine

"The shutters were actually less expensive and more beautiful than we expected. Would I use Elizabeth Shutters again? I'm already planning our vacation home."

— Samir & Nadia Pollack, Carlsbad

"We are happy to report that Elizabeth Shutters lives up to the traditional standard of excellence in the quality of fabrication and delivery of the product. We appreciate your caring attitude and would recommend your company to others with no hesitation."

— Howard and Lynne Landesman, Atherton

100% Whole Basswood Interior Shutters

Elizabeth Shutters uses whole, North American Basswood, a sustainable and renewable resource. Basswood in the Great Lakes region is harvested on a sustainable yield basis. Wood that fails Elizabeth Shutters' quality standards, along with scrap and sawdust, is sold to other manufacturers, composters and soil amendment processors.

Local Manufacturing: Elizabeth Shutters makes all its shutters in our Colton, California facility. Local manufacturing conserves fossil fuels (in shipping) and generates local employment.

Green Shutters: Elizabeth Shutters' commitment to green manufacturing has been recognized and honored by The Desert Sun, The Press-Enterprise, The Orange County Register, and The Los Angeles Times.
