Casa de Mañana holds the coveted distinction of being accredited by the Continuing Care Accreditation Commission of the American Association of Homes and Services for the Aging. The Commission accredits Continuing Care and Multi-Level Care Communities throughout the United States.

As a not-for-profit Multi-Level Care Community, Casa de Mañana is licensed by the State of California as a Residential Care Facility for the Elderly, not a Continuing Care Retirement Community.

Communities that receive this accreditation have been carefully evaluated against the standards of excellence set by senior care professionals. This CCAC accreditation gives you the assurance that Casa de Mañana is living up to its standards of excellence, as well as its own mission of service. Accreditation means that Casa de Mañana has proven it has staff, expertise and resources to fulfill its obligations to residents.

Casa de Mañana provides services to residents without regards to religion, race, sex, color, sexual orientation, national origin, or ancestry. License #374600801
